All of Life to the Glory of God

We live in an individualistic culture where the majority believe that the purpose of life is what one makes it to be. Yet such a belief has led the multitudes, including Christians, into a perpetual state of despair.

The Lord of the universe has “stamped eternity on every human’s heart.” We are the peak of God’s creation; created by Him and for Him. It only makes sense, then, that the purpose of all human life is derived from what God defines it to be: “Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.”

In this study we will discuss what it means for each of us to live all of life to the glory of God. All you will need is a “soul that pants for the Lord as a deer pants for streams of water.” And, hopefully, by the end of these weeks we can say joyfully together that “our chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.”
